

'Allow us to Live'

SEEKING AN END TO AGONY : Family members, including children, of Punjab farmers who committed suicides, protest in New Delhi against the "anti-farmer" policies of the Central and Punjab governments. The farmers ended their lives owing to mounting debts and harassment from moneylenders. - Photo - V. Sudershan

Courtesy : The Hindu, 01 February, 2008

R.K. Karanjia :
Living Through 47
the BLITZ

76

Review
by
G.S.
Bhargava

CONTENTS

(English Section)

- New Media : Changing at the Speed of Thought - Rajesh Jain 61
- Citizen Journalism : Challenge or Opportunity? - Balendu Dadhich 66
- Internet - enabled Business Models Will Rule Next Generation of Marketing - Neville Taraporewalla 71
- Consumers of Media have Become the Creators of Media-Anisha Motwani 75
- Has Internet's Time Really Come in India? - Santosh Desai 77
- Convergence is Poised to Take Place in a Big Way - Interview : Vinay Chhajlani 79
- The Ever - expanding Horizon of New Media - Ajay Jain 81
- The Internet and the New Interactive Media in the Service of Democracy - Prof. J.V. Vilanilam 86
- Internet Revolution in the Advertising Space - Abhishek Jha 92
- R.K. Karanjia : Living Through the BLITZ - P. Sainath 95
- "An Anthology Of Indian Journalism" Edited by Nirmala Lakshman - Review by G.S. Bhargava 98
- Campus Round-up - C.K. Sardana 101